

Evening Creative Writing Group

REGISTRATIONS OPEN JULY 15th, 2019

Wednesdays, 6:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Worcester Public Library, 3 Salem Square, Worcester, Massachusetts

Fall Session: September 11 – November 13

Winter Session: January 8 – March 11

Spring Session: March 25 – May 27

Facilitator: Winona Winkler Wendth

Do you know what you want to say but can't seem to find a way to say it? Or are you looking for effective ways to develop those ideas or sketches in your notebooks or journals? Do you sense that your writing is complete but not "finished"? The Wednesday evening creative writing group is designed for writers who want to develop the tools they need for their own projects. The group produces writing shared in a workshop setting generated by in-group and at-home prompts. Examples of exercises include those that focus on point of view, description, rhythm and texture, voice and dialogue, working with the senses, character description, and exposition. The workshop is open to writers on any level.

This workshop meets 2 hours weekly for ten weeks in the fall, winter and spring. Class size is limited.

REGISTRATION IS REQUIRED: <https://sevenbridge.org/seven-bridge-sessions/groups/writing-groups/writing-group-registration/>

Winona Winkler Wendth holds an MFA in literature and writing with an emphasis on creative non-fiction from the Bennington Writing Seminars. She teaches writing, literature, and other humanities courses at Quinsigamond Community College. Wendth has been a workshop leader in Lancaster since 2011 and a writing mentor since 2009. Her work appears frequently in print and online literary journals and was listed in Best American Essays/2010. She writes both fiction and creative non-fiction and is working on a collection of memoiristic essays as well as a short novel.