43rd Annual
 Horseshed Fair!
 10am—4pm

The annual Horseshed Fair draws hundreds of visitors from throughout northern Worcester County to the grounds of First Church of Christ Unitarian in Lancaster. In addition to a wide range of craft items displayed by more than 60 independent vendors, church members make over 100 pies, ranging from apple to cherry and blueberry and apple crisp.

A baked goods kitchen offers additional goods-cookies, breads, baked beans, fruit rollovers, cupcakes and more. The outdoor Lunch Box provides burgers, hot dogs, chili and nachos. In addition to the usual selection of soft drinks, coffee, iced tea and water, a few years ago the fair added selections from Wachusett Brewery. There will also be fresh Vermont cheddar for sale.

Look for the gift basket raffle with such items as holiday decorations, coffees, chocolates and crafts.

Children from the church's Religious Education group provide face painting, games and treats especially for younger visitors. There is no cost of admission, but there is plenty of fun. The fair is the church's largest annual fundraiser.

Foliage and Lunch: October 12th Along the Upper Post Road

Salem Cross Inn

Step back in time traveling the Upper Boston Post Rd gazing at the foliage as early settlers once did. In West Brookfield you arrive at the Salem Cross Inn , a 600 acre farm located in West Brookfield . In 1950 the White family sold it to the Salem family who restored it and opened the restaurant in 1961. It is now known as the Salem Cross Inn. Look for clues while we are there as how it became ‘The Salem Cross Inn—you already have one big clue)! The gorgeous early American architecture is decorated with rare artifacts, a museum unto itself. The real work of art, the food! The Inn is famous for using local ingredients to prepare sumptuous menu’s. After we dine we board the hay ride to enjoy the countryside much like they did when the farm was established. You will be fed and happy when we leisurely begin the return trip to the MotherTown, another old settlement!

We are waiting for pricing details about the hayride, but you know our trips always sell out quickly so we wanted you to know now. Interested? Send us an email or call Donna and we will get back to you with the price. We will leave about 10

Another redo! Never hurts to ask twice !

Brace yourself. I have a favor to ask of you. It may be helpful to know it is for a very good cause. Would you help 'The Unforgettables' as we walk for Alzheimer's research? Of all the great causes that deserve support, why are we directing our efforts for this one? Allow me to explain.

Our mission is to improve lives of Lancaster seniors and their caregivers. It seems simple enough— it is not. One of the biggest challenges we face is helping families, or worse individuals facing a grim diagnosis complete with the unsurmountable challenges. I could share many examples, but offer just a few. Picture yourself— not being able to sleep for fear of your loved one sneaking out, falling, or breaking something. Even the early stages of Alzheimers can be difficult subtle mood and memory changes strain relationships- no it is not you it may be the first signs of worse to come. The worries continue, Alzheimer's patients are more susceptible to scams —sometimes giving credit cards, or financial information to those that should not have it. Finally, in the end forgetting those they loved most... It is cruel. Having been through it I attest it rips you apart.

Why should you care, after all your family is healthy—right?! Well, at the rate Alzheimer's diagnosis is increasing chances are you will not be spared. Impacts range well beyond the patient, to families, business and caregivers many who have to leave well paying jobs. It is a loss to the community, and strains our health care system and our tax base—simply put it is worth fighting for a cure.

Now, the good news. There have been tremendous breakthroughs in Alzheimer's research. Scientists have identified genetic markers so they are able to direct therapies more efficiently. Studies conclude we can improve life with Alzhiemers for example exercise will improve mental acuity for dementia patients as well as all of our aging brains. There is much to be optimistic about and we will continue to share strategies with you this in upcoming newsletters.

Now we want to be part of the cure, lets make lives better and selfishly it feels good to help. So please help us help everyone and walk with us, or pledge or volunteer. Anything and everything helps and yes, it feels good.

Cranberries are native to the United States and Canada. Traditionally, Native Americans used cranberries as food, in ceremonies, and medicinally. The first commercial cranberry beds were planted in 1816. Today cranberries are farmed on approximately 40,000 acres across the northern United States and Canada.

Nutrients: Cranberries are an excellent source of vitamin C and a good source of dietary fiber and vitamin E. They're a potent source of flavonoids, which prevent E coli from adhering to the cells lining the urinary tract and, in turn, may avert urinary tract infections. This same effect may help prevent bacteria from causing gastric ulcers. The antioxidant properties of

Become a Friend of the Lancaster Seniors! 2018 Annual Appeal for Donations

We encourage you to consider supporting the Friends of the Lancaster Seniors, Inc., a non-profit 501(c)3 corporation. You don't have to be a Senior to be a Friend! Please help us by making your tax-deductible donation today!

The Friends works in the background to financially support seniors and activities at the Senior Center. We provide funds to subsidize trips and meals, as well as supplies for the Senior Center (free coffee, for one thing). In addition, we provide money to help fund the Community Services Liaison, a position that has provided invaluable services to our senior population. We have spent over $5,000 this past year (2017) alone to support the Senior Center and its programs!

Our popular Pancake Breakfast continues to be a major source of funds for the Friends. Join us every Tuesday from 7:30-9:00AM and enjoy blueberry pancakes, French toast, sausages, scrambled eggs, fruit, coffee, and OJ. All you want for a mere $3 suggested donation. You can't beat that!

All monetary donations will be considered fully tax-deductible, and you will receive a letter and receipt to that effect. We even accept credit cards! Ask for David James the next time you are at the Senior Center or donate using PayPal on our web site!
