IV. Animal Report

August 29th report of an aggressive dog on Lunenburg Road- not resolved due to the caller not responding back to Phyllis to identify the dog and which neighbor it belongs to.

September 14th loose Husky on Main street- belonged to the home on Creamery Road of which Phyllis is familiar with and tried to contact when the dog was reported being seen walking down Main Street

3 additions to Animal Officer Report

1. Dog left in a car at the soccer fields on Sunday (9/15/19) at the Mass Youth Soccer Association and reported as not doing well. Officers responded and found the owner of the dog.
2. Dog bite #1- Friday (9/13/19)- a 9 year old girl tripped and fell on a 7 year old arthritic lab who in turned bit her face badly. She went to the hospital and got her cheek fixed.
3. Dog bite #2- Monday (9/16/19)- Pitbull from 60 Prescott Street was let off leash by owner on the college property to run around. The dog attacked a collie and there was a bite wound. Collie went to the Central Animal Hospital Vet. 10 Day quarantine on Pitbull where she is not to leave the house besides to go to the bathroom and must be kept on a short leash.

All other issues in Phyllis's log resolved.

Various resolved issues discussed from the log.
