GRANT AWARDED TO TOWN CLERK

LANCASTER- This week the Town Clerk's Office was awarded a grant from the Center for Tech & Civic Life. Town Clerk, Dianne Reardon, applied for the grant to offset the additional election costs due to the Covid-19 pandemic. The grant was awarded in the amount of $5000.00.

The Center for Tech & Civic Life's goal is to help connect Americans with the information they need to become and remain civically engaged, and ensure that our elections are more professional, inclusive, and secure. For more information about the organization and its mission please visit: www.techandciviclife.org.

Dianne Reardon, Town Clerk, commented by saying, "I am thrilled to have been awarded this grant. Our election related expenses have skyrocketed this year and every little bit helps to alleviate the financial burden on the taxpayers of Lancaster."
