Craig A. Miller, author of "This is How it Feels: A memoir of attempting suicide and finding life," shares his story of recovering after years of child abuse, mental health issues, and a suicide attempt. Craig will discuss each phase of his lived experience - from childhood to adulthood - highlighting what helped, what hurt, and what gave him hope. He'll also share the steps he took to move forward in life, how he found purpose in his pain, and how the lessons he learned from his life's greatest tragedies gave him everything he needed to cope with his past and remain resilient today. ## Turning Memories into Memoir: Six-week course, with Mary Bonina

Mondays, March 25 – April 29, 2019
Thayer Memorial Library, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

This is a class geared toward memoir writing at every stage in the process, giving you some tools to continue working on your own. Learn through discussion and examination of examples by some of the best published memoirists. See how to get at truth in a story and make it come alive by using elements drawn from fiction-writing including detail and image, scene and dialogue, a sense of place and time, and character development. Participants will generate personal writing pieces through guided exercises. Other important prompts will help you mine your life to identify significant experiences that beg to be dealt with. By exploring life events that mattered for you, you can select moments that reveal the truth of shared human experience and enable readers to connect with your story. Finally, this class will also delve into ways to shape your story, choosing a structure that should be unique to the demands of your narrative.

The fee for the six-week course is $200.00. Preregistration is required. To enroll, please visit sevenbridge.org, or contact us with questions at 7bridgewriterscollaborative@gmail.com. Deadline to enroll, March 1.

Mary Bonina's first book of creative non-fiction was published in 2013 —My Father's Eyes: A Memoir— which tells the story of growing up and literally being her father's eyes, doing the seeing for him while he was gradually losing his sight from a genetic retina condition that eventually left him totally blind. Chapter selections appeared prior to book publication in Gulf Stream, Hanging Loose Magazine and in Zingology's anthology called Power. Excerpts from her memoir have earned her the designation of finalist (Goldfarb Fellowship, Virginia Center for the Creative Arts) and Honorable Mention (University of New Orleans Study Abroad Contest), in addition to several fellowships for artist residencies. "Our Mutual Landscape," Bonina's personal essay and memoir on the work of poet Christopher Gilbert and his 1970's community of poets in which she was active, appeared in the Worcester Review, an annual (2013). Bonina has been a Virginia Center for the Creative Arts fellow since 2002, when she was named first alternate for the Goldfarb Fellowship, based on the submission of early chapters of My Father's Eyes. She also received a Vermont Studio Center residency fellowship as well. She earned her M.F.A. from the Program for Writers at Warren Wilson College. Active in the Boston literary community, Bonina is a well-known reader, presenting literary programs and serving on the Board of Directors of the Writers' Room of Boston, where she also has studio space for her current work. Her website is <http://www.marybonina.com>.

Turn Markers

Into Energy!

Dear Lancaster Residents,

My name is Bella MacNeil, I am a senior and a member of the National Honors Society at Nashoba Regional High School. I'm excited to tell you about a very special program I'm coordinating at Mary Rowlandson Elementary & Luther Burbank Middle School in conjunction with Crayola. It's called Crayola ColorCycle – an amazing new program devised to turn used markers into energy!

All around Mary Rowlandson Elementary & Luther Burbank Middle School students and teachers will be collecting used markers that are ready to be discarded. The markers will be sent to a facility where they will be converted into clean fuel. This fuel can be used to power vehicles, heat homes, cook meals and more!

Please help support our efforts by sending your kids in with any used markers you may have around the house – even non-Crayola brands. Drop-off boxes will be located around the school for your child to deposit the markers.

Thank you in advance for participating! With the help of parents like you across the country, the Crayola ColorCycle program can keep tons of plastic out of landfills each year.

Remember, don't throw out that used marker—ColorCycle it!

Sincerely,

Bella MacNeil

CONNECTICUT YANKEE: THE MUSICAL TO BE PERFORMED
BY LUTHER BURBANK MIDDLE SCHOOL

Luther Burbank Middle School Drama is proud to present Connecticut Yankee: The Musical, based on the Mark Twain classic, adapted by Tim Kelly with music by Larry Nestor and Pam Hughes and produced by special arrangement with Pioneer Drama Service, Inc., Englewood, Colorado. Performances are scheduled for Friday, March 29, 2019, and Saturday, March 30, 2019, at 6:30 p.m. and on Saturday, March 30, 2019, and Sunday, March 31, 2019, at 2 p.m. Performances will be held at the Mary Rowlandson Elementary and Luther Burbank Middle School auditorium at 103 Hollywood Drive, Lancaster, MA 01523. Tickets will be available at the door for $4.00 for students and seniors and $6.00 for adults. For more information, email lbmsdramaclub@gmail.com.

Hank Morgan, a teenager who works on his school's stage crew, is knocked out by a co-worker. He finds himself in Camelot, England where, after predicting an eclipse of the sun, he is hailed a great wizard. After being knighted as 'Sir Boss,' he sets out to modernize Camelot, complete with bicycles, T-shirts and telephones. But the king's wicked half-sister plots against Camelot, planning an invasion with her own army. How 'Sir Boss' overcomes the evil plot and finds his way back to Hartford, Connecticut, provides fun and excitement for everyone. With the opening hit, 'There's Gonna Be A Show Tonight' to additional songs such as 'Have No Fear, Lancelot Is Here!', you'll have the ideal musical for everyone.
