Trail Walk with ICE CREAM!

Join Lancaster Recreation & Lancaster Land Trust for a guided Bolton Connection Trail Walk led by Bob Lidstone of the Land Trust and ending with ice cream at Bolton Orchards!!

The walk is Saturday August 6th from 10 am to Noon.

We start in Eastwood Cemetery (Old Common Road), go through State land to Rte 110, pick up the Bolton Flats trail up to Rte 117, and over to Bolton Orchards for ice cream. Option for some to walk back to the cemetery as well. Park at Bolton Orchards in the eastern most part of the parking lot on Rte 117 and we will "ferry" you to the start at Eastwood Cemetery. Look for Bob with the Lancaster Land Trust Banner!

Remember to bring water. Sun glasses and bug spray recommended - AND bring some money for the best part - ICE CREAM! Lunch optional, on your own.

"WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO THE BIRDS OF JOHN J. AUDUBON?"

Presented by award-winning photographer, Peter Christoph

Tuesday, August 2, 2016 at 6:00 PM

Peter will compare and contrast his own bird photographs with the works of ornithologist, naturalist, and painter, John J. Audubon. If Audubon's birds no longer exist, Peter will offer observations of what may have happened to them. He will talk about using a camera to document birds and their behavior instead of shooting them with guns.
