A Letter from the Thayer Memorial Library Director

To the Citizens of Lancaster:

In these uncertain times, I would like to encourage everyone to remember what binds us together. Lancaster remains a diverse cobbling of various villages, neighborhoods and other distinctive groups, but is also a cohesive, interconnected community, sharing a vision that includes equitable services for all.

Serving Lancaster, the Thayer Memorial Library is a place of refuge for free thinkers, lifelong learners and for all else who enter. We value civic engagement and civility. We respond to all with courtesy, respect, and compassion. We uphold a bond of trust as curators of our contemporary culture as well as stewards of Lancaster's treasured heritage.

As we embrace the future, we at the Library are reminded and heartened by all that continues to remain firmly in place. We are thankful to serve all of you and without exception take great joy attending to the public interest.
