The Art of Speaking: Dialogue at Its Best, with Paula Castner and Ann Connery Frantz

In the workshop, He Said, She Said: Writing Effective Dialogue, participants learned the conventions for writing effective dialogue, including best practices and what to avoid. In this follow up session, The Art of Speaking, there will be some review, followed by discussion of how to use dialogue to further character development, reveal plot tension, change pacing, and establish mood and tone. Participants will engage in active writing practice and have opportunity for feedback. Attendance at He Said, She Said not required in order to participate.

Paula Castner is the Chief Operating Officer for Seven Bridge Writers Collaborative as well as a freelance writer, playwright, drama director, writing workshop facilitator, baking coach, and professional administrator. Though she received her certification for writing children's literature, she writes in multiple genres. Her pieces have been published in a variety of venues, from parenting magazines, to newspapers, to online magazines, and have claimed first prize in several writing contests. Her play, A Fairy Tale Life? A Musical, with music by Canadian folk artist, Nancy Beaudette, was performed recently in Lancaster, Massachusetts. Her current writing project is a fictionalized account of a historical court case about a slave girl from Holden, MA.

Ann Connery Frantz, of Lancaster, is former managing editor of the Sentinel & Enterprise, Fitchburg, and worked at eight other newspapers in writing and editing roles. She profiles authors and their books, and writes a twice-monthly column about books and book clubs for the Telegram, Worcester, MA. She writes short fiction and has completed a novel, "Emilee's Song."

NOT YOUR GRANDMOTHER'S HOSTA

Hostas are the #1 selling perennial in the United States today. If you only grow The Green One and The Green and White One you are missing out on the huge variety of colors, sizes, and shapes of today's Hostas. This talk will help you identify some new plants that you will absolutely have to have, suggest the best places to buy them, and teach you how to make them look their best.

MEMBERS- FREE

NON-MEMBERS- $5.00

Stephen Shaw retired from the Weston Public Schools in 2010 after 36 years as a teacher and principal. Steve joined the Massachusetts Master Gardeners in 2012, becoming a Lifetime Master Gardener and Coordinating the Master Gardener Training Program of the MMGA. He has been gardening for over 40 years beginning by watching both Thalassa Caruso and Jim Crockett on PBS as a youngster. He has collected many different kinds of plants over that time including Lilacs, Peonies, Daylilies, Snowdrops and, of course, Hosta. His one-acre garden in Millbury, MA includes over 300 named varieties of Hosta, as well as a growing number of seedlings of his own creation.
