Turning Memories into Memoir: Six-week course, with Mary Bonina

Mondays, March 25 – April 29, 2019
Thayer Memorial Library, 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.

This is a class geared toward memoir writing at every stage in the process, giving you some tools to continue working on your own. Learn through discussion and examination of examples by some of the best published memoirists. See how to get at truth in a story and make it come alive by using elements drawn from fiction-writing including detail and image, scene and dialogue, a sense of place and time, and character development. Participants will generate personal writing pieces through guided exercises. Other important prompts will help you mine your life to identify significant experiences that beg to be dealt with. By exploring life events that mattered for you, you can select moments that reveal the truth of shared human experience and enable readers to connect with your story. Finally, this class will also delve into ways to shape your story, choosing a structure that should be unique to the demands of your narrative.

The fee for the six-week course is $200.00. Preregistration is required. To enroll, please visit sevenbridge.org, or contact us with questions at 7bridgewriterscollaborative@gmail.com.
Deadline to enroll, March 1.

Mary Bonina's first book of creative non-fiction was published in 2013 —My Father's Eyes: A Memoir— which tells the story of growing up and literally being her father's eyes, doing the seeing for him while he was gradually losing his sight from a genetic retina condition that eventually left him totally blind. Chapter selections appeared prior to book publication in Gulf Stream, Hanging Loose Magazine and in Zingology's anthology called Power. Excerpts from her memoir have earned her the designation of finalist (Goldfarb Fellowship, Virginia Center for the Creative Arts) and Honorable Mention (University of New Orleans Study Abroad Contest), in addition to several fellowships for artist residencies. "Our Mutual Landscape," Bonina's personal essay and memoir on the work of poet Christopher Gilbert and his 1970's community of poets in which she was active, appeared in the Worcester Review, an annual (2013). Bonina has been a Virginia Center for the Creative Arts fellow since 2002, when she was named first alternate for the Goldfarb Fellowship, based on the submission of early chapters of My Father's Eyes. She also received a Vermont Studio Center residency fellowship as well. She earned her M.F.A. from the Program for Writers at Warren Wilson College. Active in the Boston literary community, Bonina is a well-known reader, presenting literary programs and serving on the Board of Directors of the Writers' Room of Boston, where she also has studio space for her current work. Her website is <http://www.marybonina.com>.

Turn Markers

Into Energy!

Dear Lancaster Residents,

My name is Bella MacNeil, I am a senior and a member of the National Honors Society at Nashoba Regional High School. I'm excited to tell you about a very special program I'm coordinating at Mary Rowlandson Elementary & Luther Burbank Middle School in conjunction with Crayola. It's called Crayola ColorCycle – an amazing new program devised to turn used markers into energy!

All around Mary Rowlandson Elementary & Luther Burbank Middle School students and teachers will be collecting used markers that are ready to be discarded. The markers will be sent to a facility where they will be converted into clean fuel. This fuel can be used to power vehicles, heat homes, cook meals and more!

Please help support our efforts by sending your kids in with any used markers you may have around the house – even non-Crayola brands. Drop-off boxes will be located around the school for your child to deposit the markers.

Thank you in advance for participating! With the help of parents like you across the country, the Crayola ColorCycle program can keep tons of plastic out of landfills each year.

Remember, don't throw out that used marker—ColorCycle it!

Sincerely,

Bella MacNeil

After being knighted as 'Sir Boss,' he sets out to modernize Camelot, complete with bicycles, T-shirts and telephones. Dear Friends of the Easter Bunny,

The 4-H has started planning the annual Easter egg hunt. We are planning on the same time but would like to hold it the week before. On April 14 at 9:00. We would like to have a few sponsors to help us with the supplies needed. Our annual budget is $250. It would be wonderful to keep the same budget this year.

I am working on the posters and advertisements but before they go out I would like to have 5 sponsors that would be willing to donate $50. to help us out. If you would like to be a sponsor, email me at lancaster4h@comcast.net and let me know how you would like your name or business on the advertisements. You can send a check made out to the Lancaster 4-H to me at 39 Brockelman Rd. Lancaster. All checks should be received by March 20. so, we have time to get time to get the posters out.

Thank you,
Peggy Corbett
