Bridging Authors Series: Paul Hertneky – Rust Belt Boy: Stories of an American Childhood

In Paul Hertneky's RUST BELT BOY: Stories of an American Childhood the author counts himself among the millions of Baby Boomers who fled the industrial north upon fulfilling their parents' dreams of a college education, leaving behind a rich cultural legacy that has all but disappeared.

Over twenty-five years, Paul Hertneky has written stories, essays, and scripts for the Boston Globe, Athens News, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, New Hampshire Union Leader,

NBC News, The Comedy Channel, Gourmet, Eating Well, Traveler's Tales, The Exquisite Corpse, National Public Radio, Public Radio International, Adbusters and many more. His work centers on culture, food, industry, the environment, and travel, winning him a Solas Award, and two James Beard Award nominations. A graduate of the Bennington Writing Seminars, he serves on the faculty of Chatham University.

Worcester Art Museum

55 Salisbury Street, Worcester, MA

Christian McEwen – The Art of Looking, in Partnership with the Worcester Art Museum

The nineteenth century artist John Ruskin encouraged all his students to draw, even if they weren't especially good at it. "The greatest thing a human being ever does in this world is to SEE something, and tell what [they] saw in a plain way." For most of us, such clarity of focus has become increasingly rare. There is so much to see, and it passes by so fast, on the tiny screens of our digital cameras and the larger ones of our personal computers, on TVs and videos and flashing billboards, that simply looking has become a luxury. This Saturday morning workshop will give you time to do just that—exploring the glories of the Worcester Art Museum at our own slow pace, writing, sketching, and making notes—and then gathering to share what we've discovered.

Bulfinch 200 Art Exhibition

70 works of art by local artists - paintings, drawings, photographs and more reflect on "a sense of place."

In the sanctuary until May 31st.

Open Saturdays and Sundays from 12-2pm.

The exhibition is supported by a Lancaster Cultural Council grant.
